

Discussion: Third Space – Teaching and Research as a Collective Performance

22 March 2019, 14h10-17h15, Hotel Ador Bern

SCHEDULE

- 14.10 Welcome
Markus Zürcher, Swiss Academy of Humanities and Social Sciences
- 14.15 Short presentation of the report «Next Generation: For an Effective Promotion of Young Scientists»
Thomas Hildbrand, Zentrum für Hochschulentwicklung Zürich
- 14.45 What is the «third space»? Definition, developments, challenges and opportunities
Keynote speech by Celia Whitchurch, University College of London, Institute of Education
Point of reference is the UK academic system
- 15.15 Third space – practice-based examples from four institutions of higher education
Four short exposés from rectorate representatives on the positions filled over the last two to three years in the third space of their institution.
Ellen Krause, University of Berne
Christine Pirinoli, University of Applied Sciences and Arts Western Switzerland
Anja Huber, Zurich University of Applied Sciences
Claudine Leysinger, University of Zurich
Point of reference is the Swiss science system
- 16.00 Break
- 16.15 Discussion
- 17.15 End of conference